

GREAT BURGUNDY WINE

WHITE

Bourgogne Côte Chalonnaise MONT-AVRIL

Mont-Avril has been the emblematic named place (in French “lieu-dit”) of the Goubard estate since the sixties. The hillside overlooks Saint-Désert.

Formerly planted with vines, the plots were abandoned at the beginning of the 20th century.

Michel Goubard has revived this terroir and restored its former renown.

DOMAINE GOUBARD

71390 Saint-Désert - Bourgogne - France
Tél. (33) 03 85 47 91 06

bourgogne-goubard.com

 Grape variety:

Chardonnay

 Soil:

limestone

 Exposure:

northeast

 Average planting date:

1990

 Vinification & Aging

- Slow pneumatic pressing
- Fermentation at a regulated temperature of about 18°C in stainless steel vats.
- Bottled in spring to preserve all its freshness and aromas

 Tasting Notes

This wine has a tender and beautifully fruity character. Very smooth, with the right balance between tension and richness with hints of flowers, it goes well with cold meats or lightly fried fish. It can also easily be enjoyed as an aperitif, with gougères (French choux pastry).

 Serving temperature:

10°C

 Ageing potential:

Up to 5 years